Warsaw, January 6, N. S.

WE have received Advice here, that Lieutenant General Sagrasky has passed with his Troops over the Vistula at Casimir, and met with little Opposition, the Poles firing only a few Shot with long Guns, and retiring upon the Russians planting their Cannon at them: 'Tis said they are gone toward Sanock, which is near the Mountains of Hungary. Major General Backmentoff, with his Body of Troops, passed the River about Miclecz, and Colonel Sibilsky is at Sendomir with 800 Light Horse, and they reckon now that this Side of the River is quite clear of the Troops of King Stanislaus's Party. As the Prince of Hesse Hombourg is arrived at Leopold, and Major-General Keith not far from him, they hope to encompass the Enemy in such a Manner as to put them to the utmost Difficulties. We have News that the Palatin of Kiovy has refused acceeding to the late general Confederation, as also the Great Marshal Mniszech. The Palatin of Russia, and his Brother the Prince Abbot Czartorinski, arrived here this Day from Dantzick. The Bishop of Warmia arrived here the Day before Yesterday. The Deputies of several Palatinates have made their Submission to King Augustus.

Hague, Jan. 21, N. S. On the 19th Instant in the Evening we had so terrible a Storm here, that most of the Houses of this Place were damaged, and many Trees torn up by the Roots. 'Tis advised from Amsterdam, that a great Number of Ships were lost in the Texel; and we expect to hear of further Losses by Sea.

Paris, Jan. 22, N. S. We have an Account from Turin, that the Queen of Sardinia died there on the 13th of this Month, in the 29th Year of her Age; and the King of Sardinia being under very great Affliction, was gone to the Monastery of Carthusians at Colegno, there to pass nine Days in Retirement.
